MEET OUR VICE-PRESIDENT

To all FCA members I've not had the privilege of meeting, this profile is offered so that you may gain some insight as to who Marty Martin is.

While some children had the good fortune of being born with a "silver spoon," my fortune seemed to be the "wrench." My Dad had 8 trucks to keep running 7 days a week, so during the summer months he hired me to help with the maintenance. He started me out by breaking down safety rims using a broken main-leaf and a short-handled sledgehammer. From there he taught me to do oil changes, tuneups, carburetor overhauls, head gasket replacing (flat heads!) and anything else required to keep the trucks on the road. All before the tender age of 11. In retrospect, I loved every minute of my summer job as much as I love my Dad for taking the time and having the patience to teach me. As a note: my Dad's trucks were all Fords; my first car was a Ford (48 coupe); my last car will be a Ford (FALCON)!!!!

My 51st birthday was spent peering through the mirror of a 61 sedan delivery, wondering why the heck Tommie (wife) couldn't keep up in the convertible. The 12 hour ride from St. Louis was really a blast! As was the 11th National Convention!

In the summer of 1983, I had just started construction of a 63 Sprint Convertible, intended to show in ISCA competition. While at a swap meet looking for parts, I met Barby Brunken, who told me about the FCA. I joined at the next Lone Star Chapter meeting and have been active since then. My FCA number is 1930.

During the past 7 years as an FCA member, I have served 2 terms as Vice-President and 3 terms as President of the Lone Star Chapter. The Lone Star Chapter hosted 2 Regionals and averaged 14 meetings per year over this 3 year period.

The things I enjoy are helping others work on their cars, working/building my own, and, most of all, making whatever contributions I can to make the FCA a better club for all.

My wish is to meet and shake hands with EVERY ONE of YOU and be assured you enjoy the Falcon Club of America as much as I do. LOVE YA ALL!!!--
Marty Martin, FCA Vice-President

your used motor oil

If you perform your own oil changes you may not be sure what to do with that gallon of black, used motor oil sloshing around in your drain pan.

The U.S. Department of Energy estimates that 61 percent of do-it-yourself oil changers improperly dispose of their used motor oil. Do-it-yourselfers produce about 391 million gallons of used oil a year, so almost 240 million gallons of used motor oil are dumped into our soil and water each year.

Pouring used oil into the storm sewer or sanitary sewer system is like giving it a direct pipeline to the water supply. The same is true of putting oil in the trash - when it is taken to the landfill, the container will break and the oil will run into the soil and water.

One quart of oil can ruin the taste of 250,000 gallons of drinking water, according to the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency. The same quart can produce a film two acres wide on the surface of water. It can kill plants and animals in water and cause serious damage to equipment at water treatment facilities.

Used oil can be collected and reprocessed for new products, such as a fuel oil substitute for industrial uses. The American Petroleum Institute estimates that if all of the used motor oil generated in the U.S. could be collected and burned for electricity, it would meet the needs of 900,000 homes a year.

So what can you do with that used motor oil? The best solution is to find a used motor oil collection center in your community that will take your oil and properly dispose of it. Valvoline Instant Oil Change, which operates 275 quick-lube service centers, recently announced that it would accept used motor oil from do-it-yourselfers. Many service stations, independent quick lubes and retail stores that sell new motor oil will also accept used oil.

Some state and local organizations have established networks of used oil collection sites and can refer residents to the one nearest them.

It may take a little time to find a collection site near you, but protecting our environment is worth it.

Want to trade: If anyone has 2 headlight trim pieces for a 60 Falcon, I am looking to trade. I am moving and have a lot of parts for 60-63 Falcons all used--several heads for inlines, 2 short blocks (170), 1 complete 170 (mechan lifters), 1 complete 200 (will run), C-4 trans for 6 cyl, 2 or 3 2 spd autos, 1 rear axle, a rough 63 HT Sprint and a 61 sedan cut to resemble a Ranchero (basically a parts car), a front end for 60-63 Falcon, front and rear drums, 1 or 2 wiring harnesses, lots of pistons, cams, rocker arms, radiators, fuel lines, starters, generators, headlights, taillight assemblies, heater, hubcaps, bumpers, etc. Would like to trade all this for one good Falcon, prefer 60-63, would accept 64-65, but nothing newer. Thomas A. McCullough, 38823 East End Rd., Lucerne Valley, CA 92356. (619) 248-9464.
